... THE CLASS OF 1987

Introducing
the Class of 1987
Yearbook

Through the years we have spent together at Bulkeley High School, we have all had our share of good times and bad. From the time that we entered this institution until the time we graduate, there will have been a great many experiences that we will forever treasure. The 1987 classbook is established for this purpose: to lock away these old times for you to recall in the years to come.

DEDICATION

Mr. Scelza, a 1944 graduate of Bulkeley, was a varsity athlete in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation, he attended Springfield College where he received a B. S. degree. He then attended the University of Hartford and received a Master's of Education and a 6th year degree.

He began his teaching career at Hartford Public High School, with health and physical education classes. He also coached the varsity baseball team.

In 1958, he transferred to Weaver High where he taught physical education and coached varsity basketball.

In 1969, he returned to Bulkeley as the vice-principal, and eventually moved to the executive vice-principal position which he presently holds.

We, the Class of 1987, in appreciation of his deep interest in our welfare and activities affectionately dedicate our yearbook to:

Mr. Frank P. Scelza
Vice-Principal, Friend, Adviser

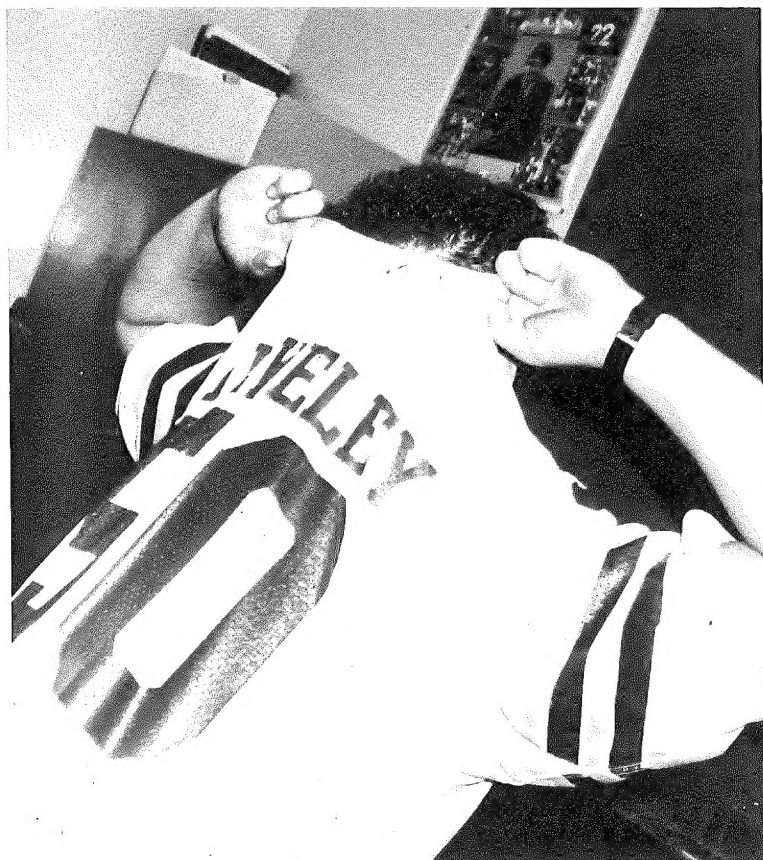

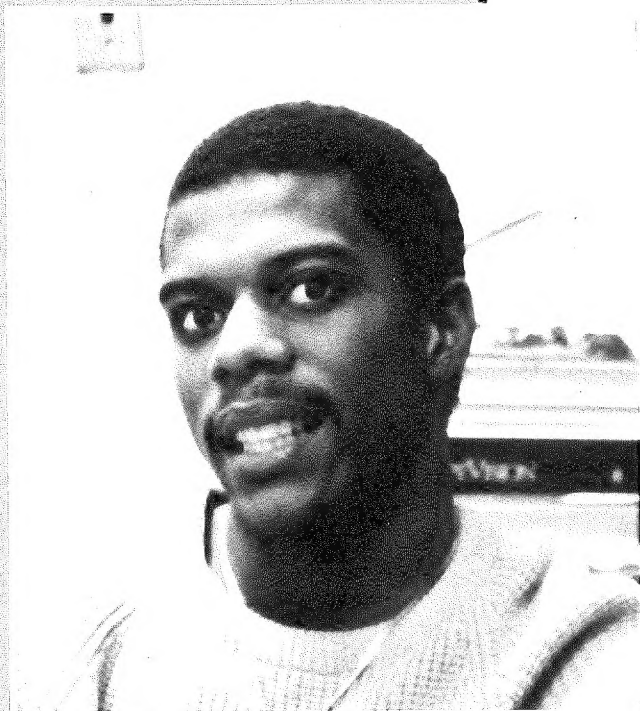

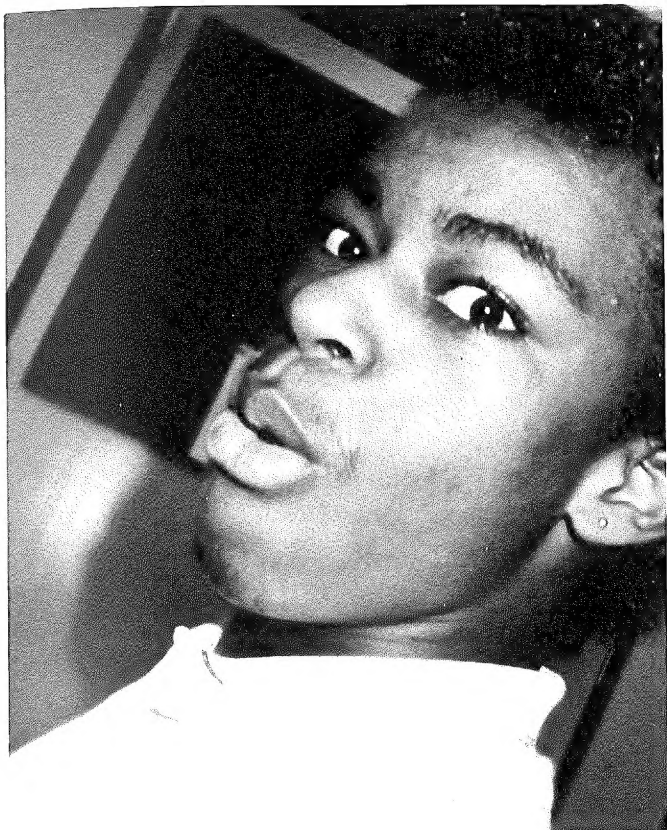

Ralph T. Conlon
Principal

Being a principal is a challenging and demanding position. It requires patience, leadership, and the ability to get along with young people of all ethnic backgrounds. It is a rare occasion to find all of these characteristics in a high school principal.

Ralph T. Conlon takes pride in Bulkeley High School and has taken time to prove to the city of Hartford that Bulkeley is a school in which academics is still a priority. A heavy concentration on academics combined with many extracurricular activities, makes Bulkeley High the great school that it is.

As the old saying states, "A picture is worth a thousand words." These pictures definitely keep the old cliché alive. The picture to the right could probably tell many tales. I wonder . . .

Everyone I knew always looked forward to lunch. But, certainly not for the food! Could it be for the gossip? There seems to be a lot of that going on here . . .

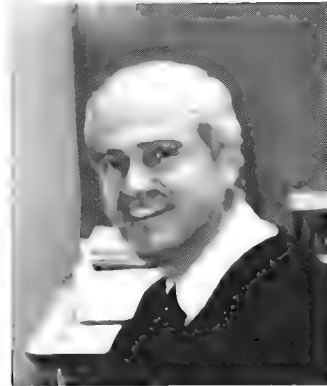

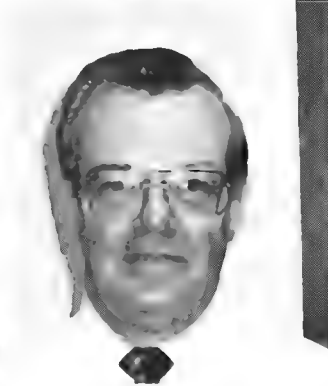

That's right, we're just hangin' out and havin' fun. At least that is what the picture below is saying. But, we had better make sure we get to class on time before Mrs. Pace begins to get angry . . .

I Don't Cry Anymore

Freshman:

I cried, and I cried a lot. I was lost and my world was changing with every step I took. I couldn't deal with the change, so I cried. And each time I cried I Promised myself I wouldn't cry anymore.

Sophomore:

I cried but I didn't cry a lot. I knew where I was going, but I didn't know how to get there. So I cried. And each time I cried I promised myself I wouldn't cry anymore.

Junior:

I cried but not much. I knew where I was going and how I was going to get there. But I didn't know if I would make it, so I cried. And each time I cried I promised myself I wouldn't cry anymore.

Senior:

I don't cry anymore. I know where I am going and who I am. And I believe I can make it. So if you see me crying, I am crying tears of joy — because I made it and I don't have to cry anymore.

I believe the children
are the future.

Teach them all well and
let them lead the way.

Show them all the beauty
they possess inside.

Give them a sense of pride
to make it easier.

Let the children's laughter remind us how we used to be . . .

When time goes by
Whether it's fast or slow
It becomes unavoidable
because it has to go

Time comes good and time comes bad
When the bad is gone you don't feel sad
You are soon relieved and you feel glad

As time comes and goes; it's never late
Time is the one thing that can never wait

Time can make you laugh or make you cry
But one is forbidden to ask the question why

Time is a memory that goes into the past
If it's pleasant it went by too fast
Time is an image that sets the present
Whether it comes gloomy or maybe pleasant

Time in the future is really just an illusion
it brings me and you a lot of confusion

Serious and fun
We Got our work done —
Hitting the books, we
Tried to be number one!
Teachers and friends
Helped us through the day
As we made mistakes
And fell along the way.
Some days were Hell
And some days were heaven
But one thing is sure
We're the class of '87!!!

THE END
